A LEATHER GOODS LOVE AFFAIR

Founded in 1921 by Guccio Gucci, a humble Italian saddler, Gucci began life as a single shop.

Inspired by luxurious luggage and designer handbags he'd spotted while employed at London's Savoy Hotel, Gucci launched a collection of leather goods for it for nobility and horseman in the romantic city of Florence.

The Gucci Bamboo bag with its unforgettable burnished cane handles was born; a purse still cherished today.

Since 2015, Gucci has been overseen by fashion designer and Creative Director Alessandro Michele, who brings a fresh perspective to the label's esthetic and and glamorous international image.

Michele is known for his bold use of color, sublime textures and intricate motifs.
