This is when you bet on the first team to win or draw, which can be the home team.

Is there a handicap to worry about that could make them lose? These answers can be found before any match even starts.

The reason for this is that there could only ever be three possible outcomes for a football match.

The only handicap is that the odds invoke more risk.

Once you have picked your side, that is set.

Football - This is the prime example of using double chance.

That means it can still abide by the three possible outcomes that can happen.

Every advantage is a good reason to try but every disadvantage can leave you open to more risks.

Open portals are platforms for collecting feedback that users can access and leave an online review on simply by registering their account. It is not necessary for these portals to verify the guest actually stayed at a hotel or the visited to a restaurant in order for the users to leave their opinion. There is basically a tacit agreement between the portal and the user, for which it is assumed that those who leave the review have actually used the facility.

Even the social media network provide the possibility to report fake reviews and to delete them after careful and meticulous analysis by the authorized personnel.

However, only reviews which have both a star rating and a comment can be removed.

Reviews that only have a star rating without an evaluation cannot be deleted.

Yelp strongly condemns the manipulation of feedback and the publication of fake reviews and requires its users to report any suspicious cases. In addition, the platform invites account owners to complete a form when they are contacted by one or more of these agencies with the promise of fake reviews.

How to solve the problem?

We are firm supporters of real reviews left by real guests who have actually vis ited your business. Through our tool, you have the concrete possibility to contact your guests before, during and after the stay in order to ask for their feedback.
