The option to stay anonymous online when using Cash App is highly significant to many people.

In other words, they want to remain anonymous, which is why they're interest ed in using fictitious identities, which not all payment system providers allow or provide.

Yes. On your Cash App account, you can use a fictitious name.

After signing up in the Cash app, you'll acquire your unique username, calle d a $Cashtag.

Users may request and transfer money within the limit anonymously using only the ir $Cashtag, and no other information, removing the requirement for bank account details and identification evidence.

Except for your username (which may be altered), Cash App does not disclose your legal name, location, email address, phone number, card number, or balance to a nyone.

You can use fake names to protect your private life online.

You can type a new $Cashtag from here
