The sports betting industry continues to grow in the United States, and chances are that you are looking to break into the industry.

I have spent more than 20 years in the sports betting industry.

When looking at betting odds, the favorite will always be listed with the (-) in front of their betting lines.

There are certain situations when both teams in the matchup will have the (-) sign listed, and that means that sportsbooks view that game as a toss-up - where it's not clear who is the favorite.

But be warned, the higher the number also means that the lower the chances are of that team or individual winning the game or event.

Sports betting is hard stuff.
